Et tu Brute!

A correspondent of the Sumaer Tribune, a Raiseal organ, in speaking of the Federal office holders in this city, says :

When they have been asked to contribute to the success of the party, either locally or nationally, they have invariably refused. When they have been asked to appoint worthy young colored men to positions under them, young men who were in every sense competent, both as to honesty and capability, and in many instances the superiors of those they did appoint. in honesty, at least, as one particular occur reuce in Alexandria bears undisputed testimony to the truth of this assertion, they have peremptorily refused, saying that it would never do to have a colored man in their office in any other capacity than that of a sweeper or spittoon cleaner. They belong to a third term cub in Alexandria. They have admitted one or two colored men into this club, thinking to control the rest of the colored people through them; but if I read aright the sentiment of the colored people they are reckoning without their host. If that third term, office holding, anti-Republican and negro-hating club in Alexandria, for in their hearts they hate an educated colored man who will not be used as a tool by them, and who knows his rights and will contend for them, expect to control the R publicaus of Alexandria or of the Eighth Cougresstonal District, I tell them they are mistaken.

I do no hesitate to say that Gen. Grant has done irreparable injury to the State of Virginia by his appointments, especially is this the case in Alexandria city and county. The office holders in Alexandria have caused the Republican party to lose, I fear, inevitably, Alexandria city and county. As this may seem a broad assertion and may be denied, I shall state the reasons. These men, and to be a little more specific, I mean the Po-tmaster and the Revenue Collector, E. E. White), once enjoyed the confidence of the colored people. E. E. White especially, before he became firmly secured in his position, attended all the political meetings held among them, and so great was his love for them that he used to sneak around to their houses at night, but I believe he was never known to visit them in the day time. When White largely through the influence of the colored people of Aiexandria, was retained in his position, he went back on all the fair promises he had made them and even ceased to recognize them. With keen perception, he soon discovered that the political influence of the colored people was somewhat on the wane, and imm -diately proceeded to worship the rising star whose political influence seemed all potent in the Eighth District, (I mean Mosby.) If Col. Mostr's influence abates in the least degree with the Administration White will trim his sails to catch the political breeze and be wafted with the popular current. White is a solemer and a trickster, utterly devoid of priuciple. It colored men have influence with the Administration he is a negro at night and a white man by day. If Col. Mosby have influence with the Administration he is a Mosby

If third termism is popular, he is a third term man, as he was last Summer, and providing he may be allowed to retain his office he will go for a fourth, and even a fifth term. Mr. Berkley, the Postmaster, was twice elected Mayor of the city mainly by colored votes, yet when he became Postmaster, he said it would never do to appoint a colored man to a positoo in his office, "the people of Alexandria would not like it."

There are already sufficient charges on file in the office of the Commissioner of the Revenue to remove White, at least Commissioner Pratt so expressed himself to the Commissioner that asked White's removal last- summer. The ploted people of Alexandria city and county have been deceived, and wronged by these men, have been betrayed by those whom they regarded as good Republicans. The mass of the colored people when they once lose confidence to men never after trust them. lodeed I think as a race we are too impulsive and emotional, but I shall not discuss this here. They, as they ought not to, have lost confidence in the Republican party on account of the meanners these men. They have become lukewarm, i-interested, and many of them vote the Demeratic ticket. Some who exerted influence moug them have either kept their peace or take no interest in matters. They do not stop to usider that we must not blame the party, but that we must make superbuman exertions to I the party of these leeches and wolves in ep's clothing, but give up in despair. There are various unsightly allusions to memers of the families of the two officers to whom eference is made, and also to the Secretary of the Radical Association of this city, in the arthe from which the above extract is taken, but which for obvious reasons we have omitted, but the editor of the Tribune endorses the

IN THE possible results of the cut that shall the Atlantic currents into the Pacific Ocean te may see as the effect of merely human acts some stupendous changes equal in character to hose we imagine to have filled geological ages the times before man came on the scene. If he Gulf Stream shall ever be turned into the effe, and if this shall chill the climate of all estern Europe, we shall lose our champagne and other good things. But our climate will damaged also, and there may be such a active across the continent as will enable the active Railroad to pay the interest on its ads.-New York Herald.
